

Discover New Horizons with a WALKArlington Walkabout of Rosslyn

Kick off the weekend of Friday, June 5 with a guided walking tour above, below and through Arlington's gateway community

WHAT: WALKArlington's Walkabout of Rosslyn, a guided tour led by Arlington County Board Chairman Barbara Favola with support from Rosslyn Renaissance, will take walkers from the green space of Gateway Park through Rosslyn's bustling urban center, past the tallest buildings in the region, the third steepest elevator in the world, and other superlatives at street level, returning just in time to kick off the second month of Rosslyn's free Outdoor Film Festival "I Love the 80s," with a screening of "Weird Science."

WHEN: Friday, June 5, 2009; 6:00-7:00 p.m. (RAIN OR SHINE) Please arrive by 5:45 so we can get going right at 6:00 p.m.!

WHERE: The approximately one-mile walkabout will begin and end at Gateway Park, between the east and westbound lanes of Lee Highway, at the intersection with North Moore Street. For a look at the route, check out www.WALKArlington.com/go/walks.html

WHO: Open to the public (all ages). Registration is not required.

FEE? None; the Walkabout is free of charge.
